BRITISH CAPTURE EINDHOVEN AFTER JOINING WITH GLIDER FORCES DROPPED IN HOLLAND

Three American Armies Rip Deeper Into Enemy Crossriver Defenses Shielding Cologne, Strasbourg and Mulhouse

HEAVY ARTILLERY USED TO HALT SKY INVADERS

BULLETIN
London, Sept. 19.—(P)—A powerful, growing army of Allied sky troops which vaulted across the Rhine into Holland battled forward today, threatening to break through into northern Germany around the flank of the Siegfried Line. The lower Rhine was knocked out as a German defense line. The British Second Army in a grand push linked with other air-borne forces landed farther south in Holland, and a front dispatch said it had seized Eindhoven, seventh largest Dutch city, 10 miles above the Belgian border. The air-borne army descended in the area of Nijmegen and Arnhem, near the Reich and astride the two lower branches of the Rhine, as well as near Eindhoven, supreme headquarters disclosed.

By JAMES M. LONG
London, Sept. 19.—(P)—British troops, joining hands with a great sky-borne army dropped in Holland in a thrust to break into northern Germany, have captured Eindhoven, seventh largest Dutch city, a front dispatch declared today.

The British charged forward 16 miles in 24 hours. They linked with some of the parachute and glider forces who, by German account,

VITAL HEIGHTS ARE TAKEN IN NORTH ITALY

Fifth Army Captures Monte Partone, Monte Altuzzo, Monte Celli 20 Miles Northeast of Florence

AFTER BITTER FIGHTING

By NOLAND NORGARD
Rome, Sept. 19.—(P)—Breaking through formidable Nazi fortifications and scoring what was officially termed a "great success," American Fifth Army troops yesterday captured 3,300-foot Monte Partone, Monte Altuzzo and Monte Celli in the Gothic Line 20 miles northeast of Florence.

The enemy was driven from these heights after one of the fiercest days of fighting in the entire Italian campaign, official field dispatches said.

British and Indian troops under Fifth Army command contributed materially to the American success by executing flanking movements. The Germans opposed the attack with extreme concentrations of artillery fire. In one barrage 2,000 shells were fired against the advancing Americans. The Germans also made "maximum use of mortars and small arms," headquarters said.

San Marino's frontier was crossed at the town of Faenza, where the Marano river intersects the border. A bridgehead was established there and the British advanced one mile toward the city of San Marino itself.

The successful attack brought the Americans within 27 miles of Bologna, important communications and industrial center in the Po valley. Most of the intervening terrain, however, is rough and well fortified.

Uninterrupted fighting without substantial changes in the situation continued near the Adriatic south of Rimini. West of San Marino Canadians advanced to the Ausa river at a point about three air miles southwest of Rimini in a heavy battle with enemy tanks and infantry.

Greek troops reached the northern edge of Rimini airfield, two miles from the edge of the city.

MUST SAVE COAL

Washington, Sept. 19.—(P)—Governors of all states east of the Mississippi have been asked by Interior Secretary Ickes to start coal-saving campaigns.

Axis War Criminals Must Be Punished, Russia Insists

Moscow, Sept. 19.—(P)—With Romania's fallen dictator, Marshal Ion Antonescu, and a host of German overlords in the Balkans in the Red Army's hands, Soviet Russia today powerfully reminded the western Allies that Axis war criminals must bear "full punishment for their monstrous crimes."

The Soviet press, reflecting widespread belief here that partition of the British-American attitude may prove self-defeating, demanded that "Germans of the new wars" be eradicated.

The Russian policy, which it is understood here the United States and Britain will be asked to support fully, is two-fold:

1. Warning to all neutral countries that they must not afford asylum to Axis war criminals.

Two Correspondents Captured by Nazis

U. S. Third Army Headquarters in France, Sept. 19.—(P)—War correspondents Wright Bryan of the Atlanta Journal and Edward W. Beattie of The United Press were captured by the Germans Sept. 12 four miles north of Chaumont, headquarters for Gen. Pershing in the last war. A third reporter, captured with them, was freed by an Allied armored column and has returned to the Third Army press camp. Army regulations forbid publication of his name at this time.

Jap Losses Mounting in Palau Battle

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Sept. 19.—(P)—American drives on Peleliu and Angaur islands in the southern Palau group gained momentum today as the Japanese showed signs of weakening under the terrific attack which cost them 5,542 dead in the first four days' fighting.

The Peleliu airfield, one of the biggest and best of captured Japanese fields, was being used by American planes. To the northward the first marines pushed ahead across tough coral ridges, after capturing the island's main town, Asias, two adjacent villages and an offshore islet. The Japanese were falling back piecemeal.

Lieut. Erickson, Associated Press war correspondent, reported in a dispatch that Japanese commanders had shackled their men in observation posts and caves to insure their death stand, while officers' bodies had been converted into booby traps.

On Angaur island, six miles south of Peleliu, the U. S. Army Division speeded up its lightning advance. The infantrymen captured Saipan town, the principal settlement, with its artillery-wrecked phosphate refinery, once vital for Japan's explosives, and the largest railroad yard in Oceania.

On Morotai island, 375 miles south of Davao, southwest Pacific forces continued to scout for the disappearing Japanese garrison. Two light aerial attacks, the first Nipponese counter-blow against that islet, were reported, with two of the attacking planes shot down.

(Tokyo radio said today "about 50 enemy planes, including B-24's and P-38's," raided the city of Davao on the southern Philippine island of Mindanao yesterday.)

New York, Sept. 19.—(P)—The Tokyo radio declared today that the Japanese navy had completed evacuation of civilians from the Palau islands, now being invaded by United States forces.

The broadcast, recorded by the FCC said the evacuation convoy included cruisers and destroyers escorted by planes.

Another Tokyo broadcast recorded by The Associated Press in London asserted that American losses thus far in the invasion of Peleliu island in the Palau group totaled 6,500 dead and 15 large ships sunk. The claim was entirely without supporting evidence from other sources.

Gestapo Occupies Danish Capital

New York, Sept. 19.—(P)—The German radio in Denmark asserted today that sentries outside the palace in Copenhagen opened fire on German Marines late today, several hours after the Nazis occupied all public buildings and declared a "police state of emergency" throughout the little kingdom.

The occupation forces of the Gestapo preempted police powers. The broadcast, recorded by the Federal Communications Commission, reported losses on both sides as Germans returned the fire.

King Christian and Queen Alexan-drine were said to have resumed residence in the palace two weeks ago after a year and a half absence.

Stockholm, Sept. 19.—(P)—Copenhagen dispatches said that the Germans had occupied all government buildings, including parliament in the Danish capital and all police stations through Denmark in a lightning move shortly before noon today.

REGISTERING IN PHILLY

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—(P)—Philadelphians set a new one-day registration record yesterday when almost 9,000 persons kept city hall annex officials busy for more than 15 consecutive hours.

It was the final day for registering in this city for the November 7 election. At 9 p. m., a little more than two hours before officials closed their books, there were 2,000 persons still waiting in the rain to register.

REDS TIGHTEN THEIR GRIP IN MID-BALTICS

Russian Armored Reserves Grinding Down Panzer Divisions at Rate of One Each Day

STALIN STRATEGY SEEN

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Moscow, Sept. 19.—(P)—Grinding down German armored reserves at the rate of nearly one panzer division a day, the Red army has tightened a strangling grip on the enemy's mid-Baltic communications in Latvia in a gigantic five-day battle which may be another fulfillment of Premier Stalin's classic strategy—surround and destroy!

Front reports today indicated there still is no pause in the ferocious engagement begun Friday west of Jelgava, where the main Baltic roads and railways meet.

The Russians claim to have knocked out 449 tanks and 365 planes on the eastern front in the past four days. Obviously most of this punishment has been inflicted in the Baltic sector.

A coastal corridor little more than 20 miles wide now connects the Germans above Riga with those holding western Latvia and western Lithuania.

At the corridor's narrowest point the enemy is throwing in continuous heavy infantry and tank attacks to drive a wedge into the line held by Gen. Ivan Ch. Bagramian's First Baltic Army and attempt to nullify Red army plans to cut off and annihilate the German army group piecemeal.

(Berlin declared that three Soviet armies totalling more than 500,000 men had been hurled against the German Baltic position, and one commentator predicted an imminent onslaught by a fourth in the Narva sector of Estonia's northeastern coast.)

Official silence screened details of the Soviet-Polish operations in the Warsaw area, but German strong points in the capital continued under heavy Russian artillery fire.

Moscow, Sept. 19.—(P)—American Flying Fortresses in one of the largest shuttle operations ever sent into Russia dropped scores of tons of arms, food, ammunition and medicine to Polish Patriots fighting inside Warsaw yesterday.

The U. S. Eastern Air Command announced today that two bombers and two escorting Mustang fighters were lost. Not a single plane carried bombs and all swooped thousands of feet below their cruising altitudes to make sure the supply canisters would parachute accurately into parts of Warsaw Gen. Bor's men are holding.

Bad weather over part of the shuttle cleared by the time the Polish capital was reached and the Americans said results were "very successful."

Robot Bombs Are Launched From Planes

London, Sept. 19.—(P)—Robot bombs apparently launched from planes over the north sea crashed down on London and southern England early today, killing a number of women and children. Some of the victims had ignored government appeals to remain at evacuation centers.

The attack was brief but at least 13 were killed, nine at one place and four at another.

Worried government officials repeated warnings that it was idiotic for women and children to return.

Of one family named Chumley, only blonde five-year-old Margaret remained alive today after a buzz-bomb landed in a garden. The bodies of her two sisters, an infant brother, mother and father were dug from the wreckage of the house. The sisters had just returned from evacuation.

Shortly before noon, big guns on the British coast started throwing shells across the Strait of Dover. Warnings were sounded in Dover after 39 hours of freedom from German shelling.

The bomb attack came after a two-week's lull in which blackout lights have gone up.

This morning's attack came before dawn, the second in as many nights. The alert was brief.

Preparations To Demobilize War Agencies

Washington, Sept. 19.—(P)—President Roosevelt directed the government today to prepare now for its own peace-time demobilization, indicating some of Washington's sprawling war agencies will begin to fold up with the defeat of Germany.

In a letter issued at the White House, Mr. Roosevelt ordered Budget Director Harold S. Smith to plan now "to liquidate war agencies and reconver the government to peace."

The president ordered immediate re-examination of the staffing and duties of all agencies and said he wanted—as soon as possible—plans for:

1. "The liquidation of war agencies and the reassignment of such permanent or continuing functions as they possess."

2. "The reduction of government personnel to a peace footing."

Prisoners In Camps Similar In Appearance

Baltimore, Sept. 19.—(P)—Maj. Gen. Philip Hayes, just returned from a tour of prisoner of war camps in Virginia, announced today that more than 15,000 prisoners were now located in the Third Service Command, comprised of Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

General Hayes, head of the command, said there was a similarity in general appearance of the prisoners.

"Most of them are of medium height, about five feet eight, have blond hair and are extremely young looking," he declared. He asked the ages of some of the men and was told by practically all of them that they were 19, although he said some looked as young as 14.

General Hayes said that at one camp a leader caused trouble by telling the prisoners that they were becoming Americanized. The reaction produced was a refusal by many prisoners to work; their pay (Turn to Page Nine)

Allied Troops To Watch Rome Trial

Rome, Sept. 19.—(P)—The trial of former Police Chief Pietro Caruso, postponed yesterday by the lynching of the principal state witness, is tentatively scheduled to start tomorrow under the eyes of Allied troops, who have been ordered to intervene at the slightest disturbance.

Col. Charles Poletti, former New York governor, and Allied police authorities studied safety measures to prevent a repetition of the mob violence in which Donato Carretta, former vice director of the Regina Coeli jail of Rome, was beaten to death with oars after being mauled and thrown into the Tiber river.

Italian police did not interfere.

Jewish Soldiers In France At Services

With The U. S. Third Army in France, Sept. 19.—(P)—Ten Jewish soldiers attached to the Third Army attended today the first Rosh Ha-Shanah observance in this French community in four years with a family of Jewish refugees at the home of a French Catholic schoolmaster.

The little building shuddered from nearby artillery fire. The service was led by Pvt. Henry L. Lasker, Forest Hills, N. Y.

Platform Is Defended By GOP Nominee

Erie, Sept. 19.—(P)—Gov. John W. Bricker, bidding for Pennsylvania's 35 electoral votes, declared today that the Republican party's platform could be accepted "at full value with an assurance of performance."

"The Republican party through the leadership of the party in congress and through the administration of 26 Republican governors," said the G. O. P. vice presidential candidate in a prepared speech released by his campaign staff, "has reestablished the Republican party in the confidence of the people of the country."

In contrast, the Ohio governor told a crowd in the concourse of union station, "the new deal today only looks forward to unemployment and proposes measures to alleviate conditions arising out of unemployment."

The vice-presidential nominee, en route on a 3,200-mile trip that will take him also into Maryland, Maine, Massachusetts and Connecticut, came here from Chicago, where he addressed the American Legion national convention yesterday.

MARRIES PRINCE

Las Vegas, Nev., Sept. 19.—(P)—Prince David Mdivani, only survivor of the three Mdivani brothers who were members of the royal family in Tiflis, Georgia, in old Russia, has married Virginia Sinclair, daughter of the oil magnate, Harry Sinclair.

Lander Boy First Casualty Reported From Farmington

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck, of Lander, have been notified by the War Department that their son, Pvt. Richard Beck, was killed in action in France on September 6, the first casualty from Farmington township in World War II.

It is a coincidence that his mother's brother, Homer Eccles, a member of Company I of the Pennsylvania National Guard, was the first from that community to lose his life in France in World War I.

Pvt. Beck was graduated from Lander High School with the class of 1941 and was employed locally

Deposition To Refute Morell Is Introduced

Mercer, Sept. 19.—(P)—The defense in the trial of blonde Janice Graham, charged with murder in the death of three persons last October 7, today introduced a deposition intended to show that William Morell was at the Everett Wilson farm at the time of the slayings.

The deposition contained testimony taken from Howard C. Stamp, 34, Weatherfield, O., bakery truck driver, in his room at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Youngstown, O., last night.

Morell, husky 21-year-old former farmhand awaiting sentence on an involuntary manslaughter conviction in the death of Mrs. Helen Wilson, the farm owner's wife, had testified his former sweetheart, Janice, committed the murders in the farm house some time before 11 a. m.

Morell said—and the commonwealth produced witnesses to corroborate his testimony—he came to the farm house about that time from herding cattle in a field half a mile away to find Janice and the bodies of the three victims.

The bakery truck driver testified in his deposition, however, that he saw Morell and Mrs. Helen Wilson at the farm house between 11:20 and 11:25 a. m.

Former Titusville Woman On Trial

Salinas, Cal., Sept. 19.—(P)—Mrs. Frances Andrews, 37-year-old Carmel society leader goes on trial today for murder in the July 17 gun shot death of Jay Lovett, 19-year-old farm worker.

Testimony is expected to be delayed, however, until the latter part of the week because of the task of empanelling a jury from among 270 talesmen.

As the hour for jury selection neared hundreds of curious persons jammed Monterey county court house. The 190 seat court room of Superior Judge H. G. Jorgensen filled to overflowing with prospective jurors, press and court attaches.

Mrs. Andrews lived formerly in Titusville, Pa.

War Is Discussed In Legion Talks

Chicago, Sept. 19.—(P)—American Legionnaires went into the second session of their annual convention today pondering tidings from high ranking war leaders of blows to be delivered against the nation's enemies.

From Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, they heard that the conquest of the Philippines would be the job of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's southwest Pacific forces, with the navy supporting and protecting the campaign.

From Gen. H. H. Arnold, chief of the army air forces, they heard that the aerial arm had been built up to carry air warfare "into the very heart of Germany and Japan," and that the army long had been planning an "all-out" punch at the Japs.

DETAILS OF STIPULATIONS NOT REVEALED

Swedish Press Generally, On Basis of Fragmentary Reports, Characterizes Terms as "Hard"

TROOPS FIGHT GERMANS

London, Sept. 19.—(P)—The Moscow radio announced today that Finland had signed an armistice with Russia and Britain.

The first brief announcement, broadcast by the Soviet information office and recorded here by the Soviet monitor, did not immediately give the terms.

The official statement, however, listed the names of those participating in the negotiations which were in progress from September 14 until today, when the agreement was signed.

Britain and Russia signed the terms as representatives of the United Nations.

A dispatch from Stockholm said it was reliably reported there that the armistice terms were formally approved by the Finnish parliament in an early morning session.

There was no reliable advance picture of the details of the armistice, but the Swedish press generally, on the basis of fragmentary reports, characterized them as "hard."

The stipulation causing the Finns most anxiety was said to be a Russian demand for a 50-year lease of the Porkkala naval base on the Finnish Gulf. Stockholm reported that one well-informed Finnish source said this demand embraced use of territory stretching inland from Porkkala to a point only eight miles from Helsinki.

This same source said Finnish troops already had begun operations against the Germans in northern Finland, but it was unknown whether actual fighting had developed. In some areas the Germans were said to be retreating.

The Stockholm newspaper Dagens Nyheter said last night that the Finnish troops en route north were spurred on by resentment over reports that the Germans were burning farm buildings and villages. A Berlin broadcast acknowledged there had been some demolitions, but denied any "wanton burning" of Finnish property.

Forts Bomb Points Behind Siegfried Line

London, Sept. 19.—(P)—Around 700 Flying Fortresses attacked the rail yards at Hamm and Soest today, while other hundreds of Allied planes reinforced and supplied the air-borne army invading Holland.

Hamm is on the main Berlin-Cologne trunk, just behind the pierced Siegfried Line. Soest is in the same general Rhenish Prussian area, 28 miles east of Dortmund.

During the night, heavy British bombers rained 420,000 fire bombs on the German port of Bremerhaven, lighting it from end to end. Mosquitoes attacked Berlin for the 179th time, using two-ton bombs.

(The FCC said the Budapest radio broadcast an air raid warning this morning, suggesting the Mediterranean Allied force also was out.)

War Is Discussed In Legion Talks

Chicago, Sept. 19.—(P)—American Legionnaires went into the second session of their annual convention today pondering tidings from high ranking war leaders of blows to be delivered against the nation's enemies.

From Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, they heard that the conquest of the Philippines would be the job of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's southwest Pacific forces, with the navy supporting and protecting the campaign.

From Gen. H. H. Arnold, chief of the army air forces, they heard that the aerial arm had been built up to carry air warfare "into the very heart of Germany and Japan," and that the army long had been planning an "all-out" punch at the Japs.

Both addressed Legion members last night—Arnold in person and Nimitz by radio—after Gen. George C. Marshall, the army's chief of staff, had disclosed that 60 American divisions had reached the fighting fronts and that eight more would sail this month.

360 Teachers To Assemble Here Friday For Annual Fall Institute of Two Counties

Schools will be closed on Friday of this week, when approximately 360 teachers from Warren borough, Warren and Forest counties will assemble at the local high school for their annual fall institute.

The institute gets under way with a 7:30 p. m. session on Thursday, H. L. Blair, county superintendent of schools, presiding. Special musical selections will be followed by an address on "The Birth of a Nation" by Donald V. Hook, widely known speaker and successful Pennsylvania attorney.

At 8 a. m. Friday, Warren county teachers will enroll in the PSEA in the high school corridor and Forest county instructors in Room 114. Frank Watson, Forest county superintendent, will preside. The regular program will begin at 9 a. m., with devotions by Rev. Harold Knappenger, pastor of Grace Methodist church and president of Warren County Ministerial Association. Music and a reading by Dr. Gerald A. Yoakam, professor of education at the University of Pittsburgh, will precede a brief intermission at 10:15. Dr. Alvin C. Goddard, authority on international relations and post-war planning, will speak at 10:30, his topic to be "Education—The Cornerstone of Democracy." Meetings of the PSEA groups will be held in their respective stations at 11:25.

W. J. Summerville, assistant superintendent of Warren County schools, will preside for the Friday afternoon session when it convenes at 1:30 with a musical program. At 1:45, the Hon. Orlo M. Brees, member of the New York state legislature, will speak on "The Secret of Happiness." Following intermission from 2:30 to 2:45, the group will hear of "Personality in Education" by Glenn Drake, of Chicago, founder and director of the Drake school for professionals of stage, screen and radio and well known vocalist.

Music will open the evening session at 7:30, John G. Rossman, head of the Warren borough schools, presiding and Dr. Goddard speaking on "Educating America for Her Place Among the Nations".

Planned on the same date in order to take advantage of available speakers, the Warren County School Directors' Association will hold its annual convention in the court house Friday, about 150 directors being eligible to attend.

The program will begin at 9:30 a. m. with devotions by Dr. H. A. Rind, First Lutheran minister. At 9:30 a business session will include routine reports and election of officers, an auditor for institute accounts and delegate to the state legislative council.

Dr. Leversia Powers, advisor of special education from the department of public instruction, will speak at ten o'clock on "The Work of the Supervisor of Special Education" and at 11 delegates will hear an address on "What Is America" by the Hon. O. M. Brees.

Reconvening at 1:30 p. m., there will be music by students of Russell High school under the direction of Ruth Titcheimer and two addresses. Scheduled first is P. O. Van Ness, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania States School Directors' Association, whose topic is "Reasonable Rules and Regulations for School Boards", to be followed by Dr. Goddard at 2:30, speaking on "Education—The Cornerstone of Democracy."

Officers of this directors group are H. W. Walch, of Clarendon, president; D. Trickett, Columbus, first vice president; Mrs. Harriet Courson, Tidoute, second vice president; Mrs. Allene Briggs, Sugar Grove, secretary; C. V. Pierce, Torpedo, treasurer; H. L. Blair, Warren, chief executive officer.

WACs Will Aid Medicos In Returning Soldiers To Health

As a tribute to fighting GIs from western Pennsylvania who make up a large proportion of the 29th Division now with Gen. Patton's Third Army battering the vaunted Siegfried Line, a "29th Division WAC Unit" is being formed. It is announced by Captain E. Morgan Winant, district commander of the Woman's Army Corps, with headquarters on the third floor of the Jenkins Arcade, Pittsburgh.

Women who join the WACs now from the Third Service Command states of Pennsylvania, Virginia and Maryland, which furnished the manpower for the 29th Division, will train at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and wear the distinctive blue and gray circular shoulder patch of this famous outfit.

The 29th Division, which won fame in World War I in the Meuse-Argonne operation, landed in Normandy in this war on "Red" beach, one of the bloodiest of the invasion. Made up mostly of Pennsylvanians, the 29th spearheaded Gen. Patton's amazing drive through France.

According to Capt. Winant the WAC unit will be kept intact throughout basic training and then dissolved to permit its members to take over many of the 239 types of jobs WACs are doing all over the world. Many women are expected to be assigned to the medical department to help wounded soldiers back to health and continued service. Others will work at ports of embarkation, especially Hampton Roads, Va., to speed men and supplies to our fighting fronts. A choice of jobs, stations and branches of service within the Third Service Command is still available, the WAC recruiting officer stated.

Capt. Winant points out that the demand for WACs is growing daily and it is imperative that the new 29th Division unit reach full strength as soon as possible. Every available woman in the community is urged to visit or telephone the WAC recruiting officers who are at the local YWCA all this week to get complete information.

Concluding, the officer says: "I should like also to remind women interested in post-war planning that under the GI Bill of Rights, WACs receive the same benefits and privileges as soldiers, including mustering out pay, government loans at a low rate of interest on homes and business and tuition for interrupted college training."

Program For Round Table For Scouters

S. E. Saylor and B. W. Knapp will be the speakers at the September meeting of the Scouters Round Table when the group gathers at the Camp Jeffere cabin Wednesday night. It was learned this morning from R. L. Eness, chairman of the Round Table, S. E. Saylor's topic will be "Understanding Cubbing" and B. W. Knapp's, "Understanding Senior Scouting." Both men are actively serving as leaders in the branch of the Scouting program upon which they will speak.

Other Scout Leaders who will share in the presentation of the program according to Mr. Eness will be: Albert Toner, Scoutmaster of the Star Brick PTA Troop No. 3, who will have charge of the gathering time activity; Mr. Franklin R. Hoff, representing the Organization and Extension Committee, will explain the Council's recruiting program and plans; Myron E. Jewell, Scoutmaster of the North Warren Civic Club Troop No. 13, will review the material in the latest number of Scouting Magazine; George Seavy, Chairman of the Clarendon Troop No. 32 Committee, will have charge of the fellowship and refreshments period.

Other reports will include the present conditions of the Scout Movement, and activities plans for the coming months.

The Round Table is a regular monthly feature of the Council's program, designed to provide a period of fellowship, instruction, and opportunity for Scout and Cub Leaders to confer with each other to discover the best ways and means of bringing the Scout and Cub Training to their boys. It is expected that a good sized group will be present at the meeting, representing each of the Scout Troops and Cub Packs in the area served by the Council. This is the first fall meeting of the Round Table, it having enjoyed a recess since June.

The monthly visit of the Red Cross blood bank unit to this city will come to a close this evening after two days spent here. On Monday there were 198 persons who responded and 32 persons were rejected so that only 166 pints were secured. There were 14 persons who did not cancel their engagements and did not show up at the City Building. It is expected that today's donations will equal those of yesterday.

Herbert Leavitt yesterday gave a pint of blood for the ninth time and Charles Sontag gave his eighth pint. There were several who gave for the seventh time. John Allen, Harold Banghart, Mrs. Mary Banghart, Edward Buerkle, Henry Ledebur, Spencer Myers, Earl Patchen and Mrs. Gladys Swanson.

Corporal Claude VanAndel, of Muskegon, Mich., who is in the city engaged in the recruiting drive for women for the Woman's Army was also a donor.

KIWANISANS TO MEET

Warren Kiwanis Club will meet Wednesday at 12:15 at the Carver House and Danny Beck, famous movie and stage comedian will be present. Beck is one of the real artists in pantomime before the public today and has much of the Chaplin skill in mimicry. He is being featured at the Outing Club this week having been held over from last week by popular demand. Beck undoubtedly is one of the best performers that has ever been brought to the club.

Gasoline Is Growing More Scarce In City

Those who have been figuring that gasoline would become more plentiful are fast being doomed to disappointment as the stuff is getting scarcer and scarcer. In fact many of the stations about town are operating on a reduced schedule and are having trouble keeping pumps running. Several of the stations now have about half of their pumps out of operation.

One of the local dealers today stated it is getting to be a merry-go-round of getting enough gasoline for our trade. We have been fortunate in being able to pick up some gasoline other than that furnished from our source as we could not get enough there. Ethyl gas has almost disappeared under the demands made for more ethyl for the army and navy. We get a couple of loads each month but that is soon sold.

The regular gas is not as good as it formerly was and many an auto engine is groaning on the hills like they used to go in the good old days. Engines that are pronounced sluggish may be exonerated from the charge as it is only the gasoline and not the engine. However the parking meter receipts for the past month do not betoken any gasoline shortage that the nickles and pennies turned in to them were almost $300 in excess of the same period last year.

ARE SEEKING HELP

In an advertisement appearing in the Times-Mirror today the National Forge and Ordnance Company is seeking to secure additional help. The company has just booked an order for some important work which is essential to winning the war and the help is urgently needed. The interviewer from the Company will be at the U. S. Employment office, 225 Pennsylvania avenue, west Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 3 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p. m.

NEW SWEDISH FILM AT THE COLUMBIA THEATRE THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Edvard Persson, Sweden's leading screen comedian, has the stellar role in a new picture, which will be shown at the Columbia Theatre Thursday and Friday, released through Scandia Films in New York. It marks a new departure for the rotund and jovial actor, in that he interprets the part of a ship's cook, who becomes shipwrecked and by fate is thrown in the lap of a mysterious baronial family on a wealthy castle in southern Sweden. Here the unhappy mariner, totally out of his familiar element and environ, is faced by many knotty problems and by circumstances is forced to participate in hunts and horseback rides. Hence, in fact, "EN SJOMAN TILL HAST" (A Sailor on Horseback). The end at last permits him to unravel the mass of intricate suspense, love, jealousy, and all kinds of shady work by wicked interlopers, and he does it, as usual, con amore. In addition he is given ample occasions to let us enjoy his unusually handsome baritone voice in a number of tuneful songs, especially composed for this picture.

Beside Persson, the rich cast includes the names of several of Sweden's foremost screen actors and actresses. His buddy, Karl Gustav, who also begins as a sailor, but who ends up much higher on the social scale, is played by Karl-Arne Holmsten; the so-called Baron von Berger by Elvin Ottoson, who for years scored great successes on the musical comedy stage, and Mina, Edvard's particular friend, Bullen Weijden. Directed with speed and humor, the merry comedy also gives us enchanting glimpses of the rich and beautiful southern Swedish province of Skane, or Scania, in reality the birthplace of Persson himself, and the setting of two of his earlier, and most successful pictures.

It is fortunate that Scandia Films, Inc., despite war and blockade, has been able to import such a sunny, happy, thoroughly humorous picture in these dark and heavy days.

Warren WAC Meets Brother Near the War Front in Italy

Naples, Italy, Sept. 15.—"It's a small war," smiled Trooper George L. Lichtenberger, Canadian Army, as he saw his sister, Sgt. Helen E. Lichtenberger, WAC, rushing from the barracks of a Women's Army Corps company.

"Just sort of followed a hunch and thought when I saw so many American WACS in Italy that my sis must be in the bunch," and with that, the jaunty team of the Canadian trooper was unceremoniously brushed off as sister met brother.

Brother-sister reunions in the Mediterranean Theatre have been innumerable but it's always thrilling and inspiring to see the reunion. And this reunion brought together representative of the Canadian forces and a member of the Women's Army Corps.

When questioned as to the two countries, the story came out. Young George was in a hurry to get into the fight and chaffing at the delay decided to get in via the Canadian army. He did and has been overseas for two years.

"Right from the first," boasted the American-Canadian.

Sister Helen enlisted on Armistice Day in 1942 and trained at Daytona Beach, Florida, Camp Polk, Louisiana, and Ft. Devins, Mass. She's had more than a year of overseas duty, having served with a WAC company as personnel sergeant in North Africa for several months.

A transfer to Italy was the ticket to the brother-sister reunion.

The two are the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lichtenberger, 33 Hemlock street, Warren Pennsylvania, but the pair insists that "One letter won't do for the two of us— even though we are close together."

Navy pre-flight school at Athens, Ga., for intensive physical training and ground school study. Cadet D'Angelo was graduated from Warren High School in 1943 and attended Mt. St. Mary's College at Emmitsburg, Md., in the Navy V-12 unit for one year. He reported to Athens from the naval flight preparatory school at Williams-town, Mass.

Pfc. Benjamin Clifton, en route to New York from Seattle, Wash., stopped in Warren to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clifton, over the weekend.

Pvt. Glenn W. Peterson, of Russell, has returned to Camp Hood, Texas, after spending a two week furlough with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ardell Drayer has received word that her husband, "Doc" Drayer, fireman second class, who has been stationed at Yerba Buena Island, San Francisco, Calif., has been assigned to a ship.

Buttons Show Honorable Bit Of War Work

Thousands of men and women separated under honorable conditions from active duty in the navy, Marines or Coast Guard are now wearing honorable discharge buttons to mark their service during the present war. The design is the same as that authorized by the War Department for those honorably discharged from the army. Thus the emblem may be worn by all persons honorably discharged from the armed forces since September 9, 1939.

Issued without cost, the buttons are being distributed by naval training stations, receiving stations and naval hospitals. Application for them may be made in person or in writing. Naval personnel should write to the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Marine Corps, and coast guard personnel to Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D. C. Marines may also apply in person to their procurement offices and former coast guardsmen to their district offices. In the event of writing for the button, former enlisted personnel must send their discharges as evidence of eligibility to receive the award and officers must send the original or certified copy of the orders placing them on an inactive status.

AWARDED COMBAT DECORATION IN ITALY

Pvt. William J. Mannelick, of Youngville, has been cited by his regiment of the 3rd "Marine" Infantry Division and awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for actual participation in combat with the enemy while serving on the Fifth Army front in Italy.

Naval Aviation Cadet John M. D'Angelo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael D'Angelo, 115 Redwood street, has reported to the U. S.

Make These Novel Necessities For Overseas Gift Box Fillers

By EPSIE KINARD NEA Staff Writer

New York—You can send more Christmas cheer to your service girl, if in that box that's bound for overseas, you'll tuck in some humble little stuffer-type gifts that are glorified by the loving hands of the homefolks.

Get going—mail month is Sept. 15 to Oct. 15—and there'll be time to monogram or hand-paint the patented kind of skirt hangers which she can't get at PX's; to paint little faces on the clothespins which she uses plenty often; to whip up some dog tag "boots" which will keep her identification disks from clanking together; to "trim" a paper cut-out Christmas tree with shining sentiments.

According to an official WAC report, G. I. Jane—and you can count on other overseas girls to react the same way—will rise and call you blessed for any of these little gifts which are easy to whip up:

Monogrammed skirt hangers: To letter prettily, measured and mark her initials with a pencil on wood part of hanger, then ink in or paint. If there's an artist lurking within you, you can turn your talents loose on a flower motif, such as you see illustrated.

Clothespins: Common garden variety will brighten her wash line if you'll give each a face and a head with a brush and some paint.

Dog tag "boots": Knit or crochet draw-string cases 2 1/2 x 1 1/2 inches wide, as shown in sketch. Or make of wide ribbon or satin—quilted or lace trimmed if you want to go fancy—and draw up at top with narrow ribbon.

Paper Christmas tree: To make one shown, use green construction paper folded for double thickness. Cut out a tree shape 18 inches tall—right size for laying flat in regulation box. Staple the two cut-outs down the center, following the line so that the tree will stand up. Get a dozen 1 1/2 inch square Christmas greeting cards, and send out to various friends of G. I. Jane's—why not make one up for G. I. Joe at the same time—who would like to inscribe personal messages to her. Collect, append each card to the tree by a tiny ribbon, and fold the whole business flat for mailing.

WIN OR LOSE, LET'S VOTE!

Here's an extraordinary and disheartening fact. If the same percentage of citizens vote this year as voted in 1940, the actual vote will be more than 30,000,000 below the potential vote.

Seven weeks from today a small percentage of the voters of this great nation will decide whether Franklin Delano Roosevelt is to carry on as chief executive, or whether he is to be succeeded by the Republican Governor Thomas E. Dewey, of New York.

Two big factors will cut the actual vote. About 7,860,000 citizens of voting age are in the armed forces. Present estimates are that not more than 1,000,000 will cast ballots this year. Whether or not this sad situation is due to defective state voting laws and the lack of a federal voting law acceptable to all states is a controversial question. The estimates of a low service vote are not controversial. They come from non-partisan experts.

The other probable slice in the total vote is among the 5,000,000 families, with perhaps 15,000,000 voting members, who have moved from their former residences to take war jobs. Many of these can vote by qualifying in their new homes or by using absentee voting laws in their old homes. How many will? Not all, certainly, unless special efforts are made to induce them to do so.

Finally, there is apathy about the whole matter of voting. Primary elections this year have been disappointing; for example, only 33 percent of the registered vote was cast in Wisconsin, less than 15 per cent in Jersey City, 25 per cent in Maryland—all according to a survey by Time Magazine.

Political wiseacres think a big vote may help one candidate and hurt another. They don't really know. One thing is certain: a big vote helps democracy and a small vote hurts it. We pride ourselves on being self-governing. Well, let's govern ourselves. Let's vote!

WAC QUIZ BOX PLANNED

For the next few days, the WAC recruiters plan on answering the most frequently asked questions about the Woman's Army Corps. Many applicants who have talked with the recruiters at the WAC offices at the YWCA have made the statement that they have had these questions in their minds for some time. So, with the assistance of the WAC officials, we have picked the most popular questions and answers in an effort to clear up many doubts that may be in the minds of other interested women, who would like to do their patriotic duty by joining the WAC. The first installment of this feature will be found on another page of this issue. Girls having any particular question about the WAC are advised to stop in at the WAC office at the YWCA anytime this week between two and nine p. m., where they will find accommodating officers who will provide any information on the subject desired.

BEAUTY ON THE HILL

Senator Andrews of Florida confesses himself depressed by the "morgue-like" appearance of the House and Senate chambers. His esthetic sense is likewise outraged by the "tobacco barn" steel rafters, installed four years ago to hold the glass roofs up. The senator would like to have both chambers tastefully redone—after the war, of course—at a cost of only $900,000.

We think the legislators should give this matter their immediate and serious attention. It should perk up their spirits to know that the future holds promise of surroundings less likely to bruise their sensibilities. And with this out of the way, they might feel more like tackling such trivia as reconversion legislation, postwar taxes, and other odds and ends.

Finland is doing pretty well. Ending her second war in five years, she finds herself involved in a third. She may come out better than Italy, at that, which earned only contempt, but not much. Even once-sympathetic Washington will remember the Finnish acts which caused the ouster of Minister Procope despite his great personal popularity.

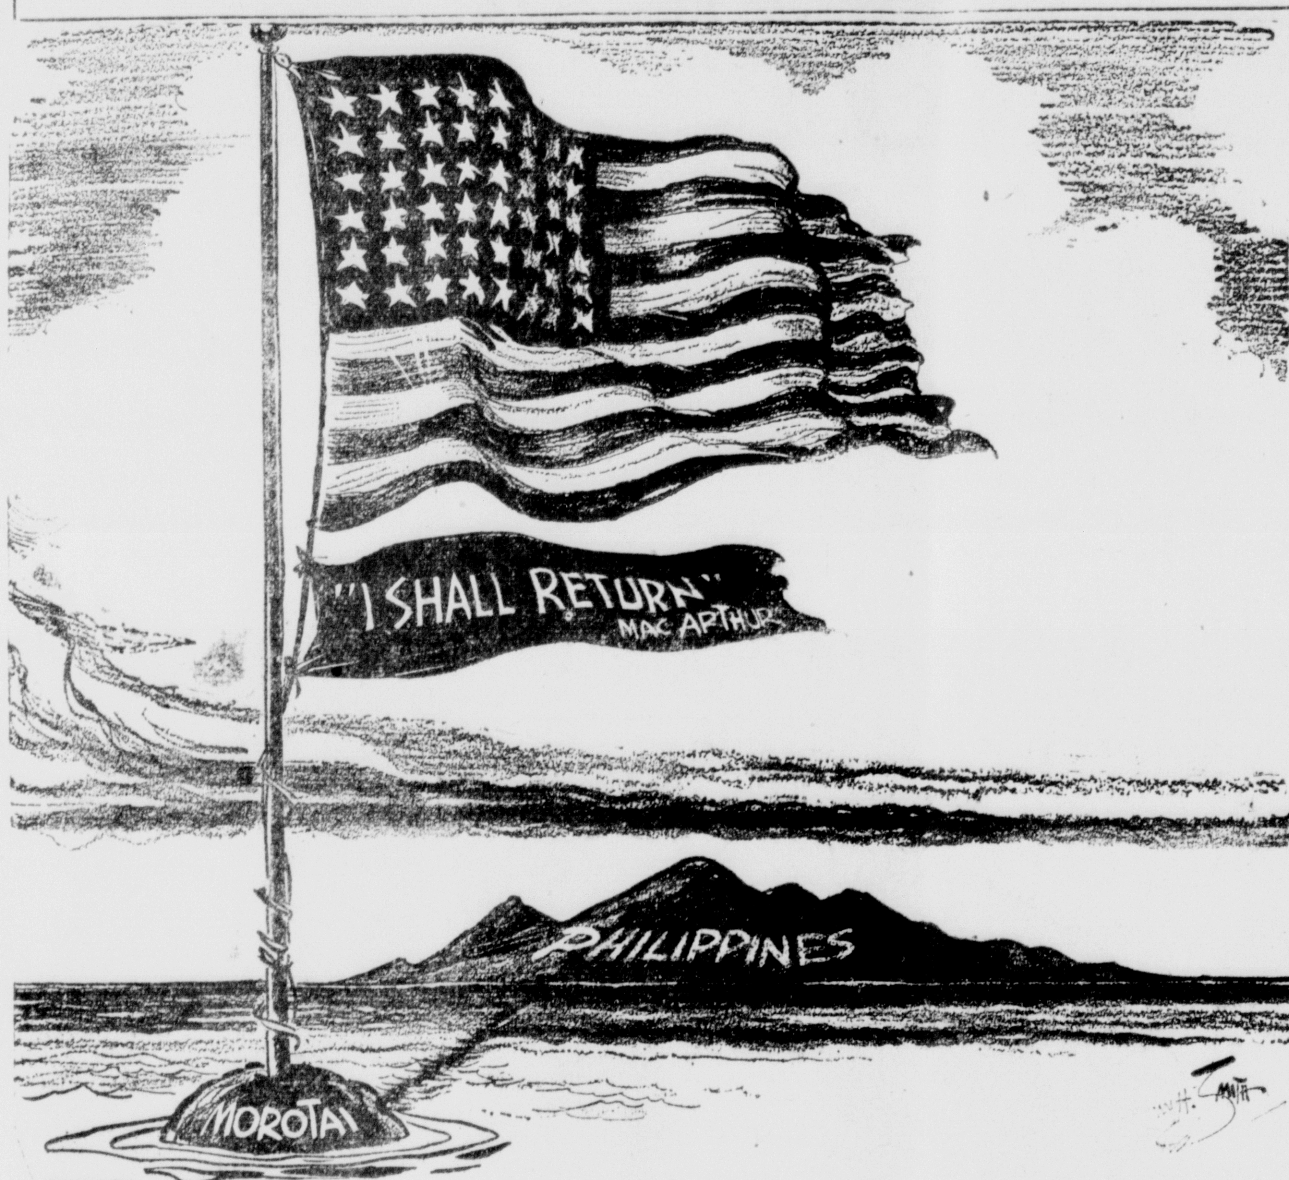

The automobile was invented in the nineties, and some of those being driven around Warren are beginning to look it.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the Lord do to all your enemies against whom we fight.—Joshua 10:25.

The soul, secured in her existence, smiles at the drawn dagger, and refutes its point.—Addison.

Close Enough To Cast a Shadow

What It Means

By JAMES D. WHITE

WASHINGTON—Viewers with alarm who bemoan the recent resignation of Brazil's foreign minister, Oswaldo Aranha, as a body blow to Brazilian friendship with this country are barking up the wrong tree.

This is the word from Latin-American experts in the U. S. government. These officials insist, basically, that there is no tree, so why bark?

Aranha, staunch friend of the U. S. and former ambassador here, resigned after he had gone to address a meeting of the Society of Friends of America, a pro-United States organization of which he had been named vice president, and found the place closed by government order.

He chose to interpret this as a personal slap and resigned as foreign minister after demanding some sort of satisfaction, however small and receiving none.

Political Barneaves

Word from Brazil, however, indicates that the society had picked up some political barneaves in its two-year career, which involved it in domestic Brazilian political cross currents.

One of these cross currents flows from Gen. Eurio Gaspar Dutra, Brazilian minister of war, who hates Communism and claims that some of the political hangers-on of the society were Communists. At the same time he is said to have no particular affection for Aranha.

Actually, claim informed quarters in Washington, friendship in Brazil for this country rests largely in the person of President Getulio Vargas. Certain aspects of Vargas' administration may not satisfy a lot of Americans when it comes to democratic practices, but the record shows that Vargas has steered his country consistently along a course of active friendship to this country.

Certain elements in the Society of Friends of America had been agitating for immediate elections, which Vargas has promised for after the war. The word here is that when Aranha identified himself too closely with this group he got stepped on.

This is sad in a way, it's held, but in no way affects Brazil's policy of cooperation with Uncle Sam, nor does it preclude Aranha's making a political comeback later on.

The calamity-forecasters err on still another angle, say people on the inside here. This alarm is that Aranha was eased out because Fascist elements in the Brazilian army were getting together with Fascist elements in Argentina and some day would split Latin America into two camps, one of which would very definitely be aligned against Uncle Sam and all he stands for.

This just simply can't be, it's insisted here. Brazil's army, under Dutra, has been largely equipped with American weapons and her factories have been afforded American equipment. Brazilian troops have gone into action in Italy.

Argentina Starts To Arm
Meanwhile Argentina, last of the Latin-American nations to break relations with the Axis—and then only under pressure—has begun to arm herself and make belligerent motions toward her neighbors.

Brazilians are inclined to regard Argentine ambitions as dangerous and Argentines as their natural enemies. The possibility that any Brazilian officers would plot with Argentine officers against their own country is laughed at here by people who know both countries.

One of the most significant things about this coalition rumor, it's pointed out, is that it originated in Argentina, not in Brazil. The theory here is that Argentines are merely trying to blow up an internal Brazilian squabble into something with which they can make hemispheric hay when the tide is running against them.

Brazil's ambassador in Washington, Carlos Martins, sums the affair up:

"Aranha's exit does not change our relationship with your country one iota—no more than the change in your own State Department (the resignation of Undersecretary Welles) last year affected my country. That change was your own business and we accepted it as such. This one is Brazil's."

... If you plan to move

If you now have a telephone and are planning to move, we suggest that you find out first if we can provide service at your new location.

The reason we urge this is because there is a shortage of telephone equipment. The telephone industry's manufacturing capacity has had to be devoted almost exclusively to producing electronic and telephone equipment for our armed forces. As a result, it is not always possible to provide telephone service when you move from one location to another. So we repeat:

Please call our Business Office to find out the telephone situation in your new locality before you complete your moving plans.

Judge Wade Tells About Courts For Johnson PTA Unit

Judge Allison D. Wade was guest speaker for the first fall meeting of Johnson School PTA, held last evening in charge of Mrs. John C. Harrington. Opening his remarks with a compliment to the unit for its fine organization and proposed study program for the year, Judge Wade outlined informally for his audience the history and development of the court as he represents it in Warren and Forest counties. He explained the types of cases handled under the two major divisions, criminal and civil court, describing juvenile, orphans', common pleas, appellate and supreme court jurisdiction and setup.

The program opened with the salute to the flag and singing of the national anthem, devotions by Miss Ida McKinney and singing of America the Beautiful. Reports were given by Mrs. Gerould Ostergard and Mrs. J. E. Richards and announcement made of the state convention in October. The unit voted a gift of $10 to its Brownie troop and to continue the cash attendance awards. Mrs. Atwood Drum and Mrs. George Irwin were chosen representatives to the Community Council. Mrs. Harrington extended a welcome to old and new members and announced the two Clare Tree Major plays for this season. She spoke also of the membership drive to be conducted in October. Miss McKinney asked for volunteers for a Red Cross home nursing class to begin soon. The principal's room won first place for the attendance award and Miss Edith Erickson's room second.

For her musical program, Mrs. T. R. Sponser presented a vocal trio, Miss Lorraine Harkless, Miss Frances Peterson and Mrs. Foster Mase, accompanied by Mrs. Edwin Jack for two numbers, I Look Into Your Garden by Haydn Wood and The Children's Prayer from Humperdinck's Hansel and Gretel. Concluding, refreshments were served by Mrs. C. H. Buerkle and the following committee of second grade mothers: Mrs. John Champion, Mrs. T. L. Patterson, Mrs. Charles Eaton, Mrs. Philip Reynolds and Mrs. Walter Johnson.

Snow - Chapman Rites Performed In Kinzua Church

Kinzua, Sept. 19—Betty Chapman, daughter of John Chapman, of Klondike, and Sgt. Lawrence Snow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snow, of Kinzua, were united in marriage at 2 p. m. Saturday in the local Methodist church, Rev. H. L. Johnson performing the double ring service before an altar of fern and golden glow. Traditional wedding music was played by Louise Chapman, cousin of the bride, with Jane Thompson singing "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me".

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Iola Lunn, was matron of honor and Edward Peterson was best man. Earlene Hanna and Bernice Colosimo were ushers. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length frock of soft blue wool with gray and black accessories and a corsage of red roses and white pompons. Mrs. Lunn wore a beige dress with black accessories and corsage of Talisman roses and yellow pompons. Mrs. Snow wore soldier blue crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and white pompons.

The wedding reception was held in the Snow home for 50 guests. For a wedding trip to an announced destination, the bride wore a black suit and white accessories. Mrs. Snow was graduated from Bradford High School in the Class of 1940 and is employed by the Ryder Scott Company in Bradford. Sgt. Snow, who attended school here, has just returned from 14 months of overseas duty, seeing action in both the Sicilian and Italian campaigns.

Meeting of YWCA Board of Directors Reveals New Girl Reserve Secretary

Mrs. Carl Lundahl conducted the first fall meeting of the YWCA board of directors in the activities building last evening when it was announced that Miss Barbara Lesser, of Warren, will take up the duties of Girl Reserve secretary here next Monday, September 25.

There were 15 members present for the meeting, which was opened with devotions by Mrs. J. P. Rogers. Minutes were read of the June board meeting and two summer executive committee sessions. Mrs. W. F. Bennett read the report of the treasurer, Mrs. U. S. Rogers.

Miss Mary Church, general secretary, covered in her report the various programs and problems of the summer months. She reported the residence building and dormitory as being full and of the need for one-night accommodations for teachers coming Thursday evening for institute and for the Girl Scout area conference next Tuesday.

Mrs. F. O. Peterson, in reporting for the membership committee, told of plans for the "Membership Enrollment Day" on Friday of this week. Present YWCA members have received letters telling of the procedure to be used this year in renewing memberships and urging each person to assist the membership committee in this yearly enrollment. All were urged to come to the YWCA Friday between 3:30 and 5:30 or 7 to 9. Any persons who are not members of the YWCA, and are interested in becoming affiliated with the organization are also invited to this event.

The board of directors instructed the corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. P. Rogers, to express its sorrow to the family of the late Miss Anna Louise Kahl, who had been a loyal member of the YWCA, its membership committee and had been serving as an adviser to the High School Girls Club.

It was voted to have the board meeting on October 16th as a tray supper prior to the opening meeting of the War Fund the same evening.

SENeca SCHOOL PTA
Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the Seneca School PTA will hold its regular meeting. Mrs. Correll and Mrs. Vance Weld will have the program in charge and movies, a talk and plans for the furthering of the Brownie Scout work will be discussed. The PTA is sponsoring the Brownie Work in the school.

Y. M. C. A. Boy Scout Troop Is Presented With Charter

The Young Men's Christian Association's charter to use the Boy Scout program was presented at a meeting of "Y" officials, members of the troop committee, Scouts, their parents and friends, held Monday evening at the YMCA. The charter was presented to Ralph Wagner, general secretary of the YMCA, by Chester R. Seymour, representing the organization and extension committee of the Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Following a short Scouting talk, the charter was presented to Mr. Wagner, who called the members of the troop committee to the front of the assembly, where they re-committed themselves to the Declaration of Religious Principle of the Boy Scouts of America, and were formally presented their Scout membership cards.

Scoutmaster C. S. Burnett was charged with the responsibilities of his office and given his membership card by Harold D. Baker, chairman of the troop committee. The impressive investiture service was staged for the new Scouts by the leaders and Scouts of the First Lutheran Church Troop No. 12, with Scoutmaster Lloyd Rapp and Assistant Scoutmaster LeRoy Tunstall in charge.

The new Scouts were given their Scout membership cards and Tenderfoot pins. The troop was declared officially installed and now entitled to the rights and privileges of Scouting by Brackett Ayers, neighborhood commissioner. Others who shared in the program and wished the new troop well at its formal investiture were: W. E. Yeager, chairman of the boys' work committee of the YMCA and vice president of the Scout Council; H. L. Banghart, president of the Scout Council; C. C. Winans, chairman of the council's organization and extension committee; Lloyd Shirk, program secretary of the YMCA, and C. Ray Lewis, Scoutmaster of the First Methodist Church Troop No. 9.

The personnel of the new troop well at its formal investiture were: Harold D. Baker, troop committee chairman; W. I. Wilson, secretary-treasurer; J. Clifford Johnson, program-activities man; R. L. Laufberger, education-training man; Dr. C. S. Reese, health advisor; Ralph Wagner, personnel man, and Ruel H. Smith, H. K. Ansell, C. L. Guignon, Dr. J. D. Utley, members at large; C. S. Burnett, Scoutmaster; Lyle G. Knapp, assistant Scoutmaster.

The scouts who comprise the charter membership of the troop are: Ronald L. Smallman, Charles J. Reese, J. Stuart Johnson, Robert E. Wilcox, Edwin Sullivan, James I. Wilson, Michael D'Angelo, Jr., Vincent R. Hooton, Andrew Jones and John Webster.

The troop committee has seen to it that every Scout in the troop will receive the Boys' Life magazine, and the troop now has an attractive "100% Boys' Life" banner to display in their meeting room.

Youngsville Legion May Buy New Home

Youngsville, Sept. 18—A meeting of great interest to Legionnaires and Auxiliary members is called for 7:30 p. m. Sept. 19 in the Legion rooms when consideration is to be given the purchase of a building to be a permanent home for the Wilcox-Haigren Post of the American Legion of Youngsville and their ladies auxiliary.

This matter has been under consideration for some time and it is hoped at this meeting there will be a large attendance so that the views of the Legion and Auxiliary members as a whole may be considered.

At a previous meeting of the Legion with representatives of the Auxiliary, a committee was appointed to see if a suitable building for this purpose could be purchased. This committee will have a report at Tuesday night's meeting which is to be joint meeting of the Legion and Ladies Auxiliary.

FIRST MEETING OF PTA

The first meeting of Youngsville Parent-Teachers Association for this school year is to be held in the school building Tuesday evening, Sept. 19. Mrs. Elton Barton the new president of the Association is scheduled to preside. A musical program is to be given under the direction of Mr. Harvey Horn, school musical supervisor.

A feature of the evening will be a social time and a reception for the returning teachers and those new to Youngsville school faculty. Refreshments are to be served. All patrons and friends of the school invited.

METHODIST GATHERING

Both the Methodist Official Board and the Sunday School Board are meeting this Monday evening in the church parlors. Some important matters are to be considered. Work is progressing on the basement improvements which are being made by the men of the church and others. Last week the men nicely redecorated the church kitchen.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

Mrs. G. E. Mix will be hostess to the Evening group of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at her home on West Main street, Thursday evening Sept. 21st.

Rev. Mr. Gustafson, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church of Warren is scheduled as the speaker at the Saxon Lutheran Brotherhood meeting being held at the church parlors Friday evening Sept. 22nd. There will be other program features. The Brotherhood of the St. Paul church of Warren is invited. The usual luncheon will be served.

Paul Passaro and Carl Lindborg of the armed service, are home on furloughs with their wives and other relatives.

Little Miss Kay Davis daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Davis enjoyed a very pleasant birthday party last Monday with ten little friends as guests. A dainty luncheon was served on a prettily decorated table and Kay was showered with birthday gifts.

Miss Janice Abraham entertained a number of little friends last Tuesday honoring Lou Ann's birthday.

Donald Haupt and wife have returned to camp after a short stay with Donald's mother here.

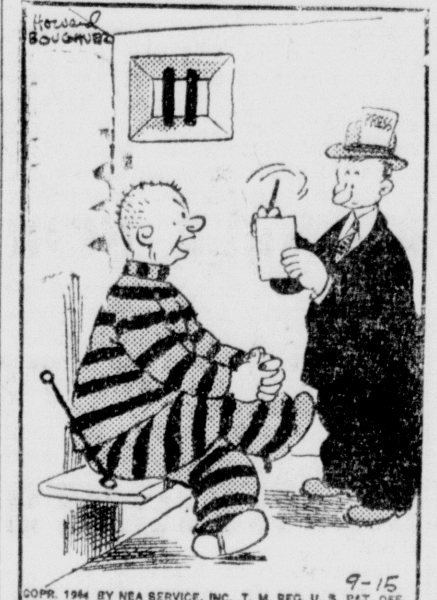

Mrs. Maude Smith is enjoying a visit from her daughter now a member of the WAC organization.

A brother of the late Clarence Jones, though unable to attend his brother's funeral, arrived later in the week and visited the family in Youngsville.

EARLY CAMOUFLAGE

Camouflage is not a modern war weapon. Shakespeare, in Scene IV, Act V, of Macbeth, writes: "Let every soldier hew him down a bough, and bear before him; thereby shall we shadow the numbers of our host and make discovery err in report of us."

Everybody reads the Times-Mirror.

"My advice to young men is to stay away from banks—they only lead to trouble!"

Yes, sonny, you cost that much! Babies are pretty expensive, especially these days.

That's why so many new parents find that a loan from us is the sensible solution to their problem. It provides cash to cover all expenses you can't take care of out of savings. Then you can take as long as 12 months to repay up to $250 or more.

"Baby Loans" are made simply and privately, without involving others. So if you need extra cash, phone or come in and see us today for full information about our "Baby Loan Service."

Hottest Club in Baseball Heads Into Yankee Series

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Detroit's Tigers, the hottest club in baseball, headed into their most important series today with a half game lead, and both Hal Newhouser and Dizzy Trout primed to shoot the works against the still dangerous New York Yankees.

Of even more importance to Manager Steve O'Neill in the stretch drive is the recent form of Stubby Overmire and Rufe Gentry who promise to give his two aces a lift. Overmire has a six-game winning streak and Gentry, rookie from Buffalo, has started to live up to his early press notices with six of his nine victories in his last nine starts.

Despite three successive beatings by the O's that dumped them out of the lead and down the ladder to third, two games behind the Tigers, the Yankees are still in the race. Joe McCarthy has his pitching planned for the Detroit series, leading off with Hank Borowy, knifing full well he has to sweep all three to start close.

Nels Potter, Denny Galehouse and Jack Kramer have been keeping the St. Louis Browns in the race, a half game back of the leaders, with a big chance to regain lost ground this week if they can trip the lowly Washington Senators and halt Philadelphia's revival.

Boston's hopes are not high after losing two of three to the Senators to sink four games off the pace but the Red Sox still have a chance on their hitting power, despite weak pitching. If the others start to knock off one another.

Yesterday's only big league game was a 6-5 victory for the Boston Braves over Brooklyn in 10 innings on a single by Dutch Nieman. The St. Louis Cards could clinch the National League flag today if Pittsburgh should lose to Brooklyn. They are already assured of at least a tie.

The Big Noise

BEHIND THE LINES

Among the out-of-town coaches scouting the Warren-Franklin game were Dent Moore of Jamestown and Bishop of Falconer. The Dragon seconds go to Youngsville Friday to meet the Eagle second squad.

J. B. Leidig believes he is growing younger. It was stated last week on this page that he was coaching his 32nd year. Coach Leidig started coaching in 1912, this year being his 33rd. (Not trying to make you believe Jake is an old man.)

Joe Gilson, former National Forge hurler, who has just returned from active duty overseas, and Bud Jeanette, one of the nation's leading pro basketballers, were among the spectators at Sunday's Forge game.

Les James, member of the Jamestown All-Stars and the District All-Stars, who played here Sunday, has been chosen as the outstanding first baseman in the National Semi-pro tourney at Wichita. (James hit a home run at Wilder Field Sunday, driving in the All-Stars' runs.)

He was chosen on the All-American Semi-pro team by big league scouts. Saturday's Oil City defeat at the hands of the Grove City boys came as a surprise to us. We are more apt to believe that the Dragons can trim the Oilers.

Titusville also took a trouncing Saturday at Sharpsville. Major Hoople predicts that the Dragons will take the Rockets by about 19-7.

Louis Collins, Jamestown baseballer, has arranged a kid baseball tournament beginning next Sunday, with Jamestown lodges sponsoring the event.

In last Saturday's game with Franklin, the third squad did a very commendable job. Although the Franklin boys were tired, you must give the boys credit who credit is due. Don't forget the Field and Stream Club outing next Sunday at Wilder Field. Starts at 10 a. m.

Bowling alley proprietors are permitted to leave their alleys go without being resurfaced. This is direct from the ABC Bowling Committee. All the local alleys have been resurfaced, showing how much effort is shown toward satisfying bowlers.

143 million ducks are expected to invade this country soon. Mallards, pintails, teals, canvasbacks and bluebills. There is much talk concerning pro football vs. college football, which is better and so on. A major controversy is expected soon.

The Jamestown Art Meet, a mushball team, winners of the Jamestown tourney, are to be scheduled (we hope) to play the St. Joe team, winners of the YM-Titusville also took a trouncing Saturday at Sharpsville.

Grid Schedule Is Announced By Wolverines

Sheffield High's Wolverines opened their 1944 football season Saturday, defeating the Youngsville Eagles, 7-6. The Eagles scored in the second quarter, with the Wolverines coming back in the third to score a touchdown and the extra point was converted. Coaches Cashmere and Crossett have announced the remainder of the schedule, as follows:

September 23—Johnsburg.
September 30—Ridgway.
October 7—Smethport.
October 14—Kane.
October 21—Youngsville.
October 28—Kane.

SPORT SHORTS

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—(P)—Like Williams, No. 1 contender for the lightweight title, will find out tonight if 13 is a lucky number for him.

Williams, boasting a string of 12 consecutive wins, meets Freddie Dawson, No. 5 challenger, who has rung up 26 victories in row, in the feature 10-round battle at Philadelphia's Indoor Arena.

Lewisburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—(P)—Bucknell University's sports editor polled four Doctors of Philosophy on "Who Will Win the American League Pennant?"

The result: One vote each for Detroit, St. Louis, New York and Boston.

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—(P)—The Philadelphia Eagles are wondering if the Sunday, Sept. 27, victory over the Detroit Lions in an exhibition game was worth the loss of two star tackles.

Vic Sears, professional since his graduation four years ago from Oregon State, will be out all season with a fractured leg, and Al Wistert, from University of Michigan, won't be able to play for a month because of a shoulder injury.

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—(P)—Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell, Philadelphia, third and vice president of the National A. A. U., has been unanimously re-elected president for the eighth consecutive year of the Middle Atlantic Association, Amateur Athletic Union.

CIVILIAN HEAVY MEETS MAURIELLO IN GARDEN

New York, Sept. 19.—(P)—Joe Baker, the Kulpmont, Pa., coal miner and Broadway dime-dance ballroom bouncer now rated the country's No. 1 civilian heavyweight, returns to Madison Square Garden Friday night for a 12-rounder against Tami Mauriello, chunky gattler from the Bronx.

Mauriello is currently No. 2 among the big boys. He dropped a close 10-round verdict to Bakid in the garden in February. Since then he has had three fights, winning all by knockouts.

Bakid is a 9 to 5 favorite, after being on the other end of the odds in their previous meeting.

Chapter 12

"AREN'T you home early?" Aunt Sarah looked up from her rocker as Susan came in the next afternoon.

Daliah Lockhart was with Aunt Sarah. She greeted Susan with a cold nod. "I suppose you've seen the paper?"

"No I haven't yet. Anything startling?"

Daliah swept the Midvale Courier from her lap and held it up opened to a half page advertisement headed, "Workers Wanted."

"How those Scarbroughs could have the gall!" Daliah said testily. "Folks in Midvale don't have to work for the likes of them."

Susan could feel Aunt Sarah's sharp eyes on her. She said guardedly, "Of course maybe some people figure a factory gives a small town security good times or so."

"I don't know how anyone could feel any security working for a Scarbrough," snapped Aunt Sarah. "They let their workers down twenty years ago. They'll do it again."

Susan could feel the hot flush in her cheeks. She wanted to cry out: Can't you ever forget a mistake that was made so many years ago? Can't you give the Scarbroughs a chance? They don't have to start this factory. But she remembered Morrill's cautioning. Go slow. Don't antagonize them.

"Jim says—" Daliah Lockhart knitted on stolidly. "He sometimes wonders if Thorny didn't put Julie Scarbrough up to coming back here. He must be getting a pretty penny for all the work he's doing for her."

Susan forgot caution in sudden anger. "I know that isn't true," she cried. "Thorny did his best to keep her from starting up that factory. She couldn't stop then. Before Daliah's saying, 'superficial gaze she added hotly 'Not because he thought it wouldn't be a fine thing for the town. But because he thought this town was too prejudiced to give Julie Scarbrough a fair chance."

"A fair chance?" Daliah's black eyes gleamed with satisfaction as they searched Susan's face. They were purring. "Just as I thought. You've gone over to the Scarbroughs. It's that Scarbrough boy. You've lost your head over him. You'd say sardonically, 'Susan I must say you are openminded.'"

"It may be weak of me," flared Susan. "But then our Constitution's weak too. It says something about a man not being guilty until he's been tried and judged in a court of law."

"Susan!" Aunt Sarah cried. "Don't get so excited. Such a show of temper!"

Susan, shaking with anger, left the room and ran upstairs. In an effort to wear off her fury she frantically busied herself, changing her clothes, brushing her hair. Finally the front door closed. Daliah Lockhart had gone.

When she came downstairs Aunt Sarah was still in the parlor. She didn't speak and Susan knew a scowled face was

"I tell you, Susan, if you don't take a stand against the Scarbroughs—" Aunt Sarah began.

"I can't take a stand against something I'm not sure is true," Susan said slowly.

"Sarah, I've got to look pathetic. She stiffened and said in her old tone of harsh authority, 'True? True? Of course it's true! Everyone in Midvale knows it's true!'

"Everyone in Midvale is willing to take for granted it's true. It's never been proved."

AUNT SARAH gripped the arms of her chair, and leaned forward angrily. "Susan Corboy, how can you be such a fool? Don't you think I know? I was here when it all happened. There was never a question in my mind."

Susan tore it open. A single scrawled line slanted across the top of the box. Heads craned from every side to see. There were iron weights in the box, and on top of them a lone letter, addressed "Miss Susan Corboy—Please deliver immediately."

"Arabella: Can you sneak out and have a cup of coffee with me at the airport?" Chick

"Sneak out!" cried Susan.

Chapter 13

CHICK MALLOY was lounging in the doorway of the airport when she came up to watch her change her dress to meet Chick.

"She'd let me come. She'd be very proud and happy if I were going around with you. Not because of your money and your name—though of course that pleases her too, but because the town would know then I wasn't seeing Erich Scarbrough."

Chick Malloy regarded her with amused chagrin over his fresh and frothing beer glass. "So there it is, right on the line. I have a rival." Then brightened. "Maybe he needs competition. A hazard or two."

Susan's eyes darkened, her smile turned bitter. "He has plenty," she murmured. "The whole town's against him."

ON Thursday there was a deluge of work. Susan pounded steadily on her typewriter till six. She was putting away her work when Erich phoned. His voice sounded tired, strained.

"Want to see you, Susan. Any chance?"

"Well, if we must keep it from the town, how about the old boat house on our lake?"

"I'll be there by nine."

On night of a walk. Susan got out as soon as the dishes were washed, followed the path that snaked its way from the rear of their lot to the deeply rutted dirt road that skirted the lake. It was quiet and peaceful trudging through the darkness. As she neared the lake, bullfrogs croaked their song where they rested in the tall reeds that grow out of the shallow water around the shore line. A silver carpet of moonlight pooled the lake into two black pools. As she made a turn she could see the black bulk of the Scarbrough boathouse sticking out into the lake.

Frich was examining a rowboat he'd bought that day. "Gonna give it a coat of my new paint and see how it holds up in the weather," he said.

Disappointed at her reception, Susan followed him around. When he'd finished they sat on the overturned boat, and she asked him about the factory.

Erich flicked his cigarette in an orange arc into the black water. "The people around here would rather starve than work for a Scarbrough. The ad did practically no good."

"They're talking it over. They'll come around," Susan said staunchly. "Did you send those paint samples to the Navy Department?"

"Yes. This afternoon."

"Good! Then it won't be long before—"

His voice was hard. "It's a long shot like the factory. If I were a girl and had a better chance—"

SUSAN stared at him. Slowly her irritation left, under a flood of warm rain, and she stared about Chick Malloy. She began to laugh. "And I'll bet the town laid it on thick for your benefit. Yes, I did go to the airport. He kissed me before ten witnesses. It was a dull day and he couldn't think of anything better to do."

"Look Susan, I haven't anything for you right now but trouble. Clandestine meetings like this aren't any good."

"They could be improved," Susan got a firm hold on his lapels and pulled him around and kissed him. With the tips of her fingers she smoothed the creases on his brow. Slowly his frown eased into a smile. He kissed her again. The day's troubles and uncertainties faded. Susan whispered, "Don't let them put anything between us, Chick Malloy or anything else. Because they'll try. The whole town will try."

"From now on, let 'em try!" said Erich.

British Capture Eindhoven After Joining With Glider Forces Dropped in Holland

their stiffened stand, Americans captured four more border towns, and reached at least three others. By German account the Allies have spread 10 miles north of the Dutch city of Nijmegen across Holland's most famous water barriers to the vicinity of Arnhem.

Arnhem is beyond both the Waal Ryn and the Neder Ryn, the main arms of the Rhine river in the Netherlands, and is 320 miles west of Berlin. It is only 15 miles north west of Kieve, the German city said to be the northern terminus of the Siegfried Line. The junction of the British and airborne armies apparently occurred 10 miles inside Holland near the rail city of Eindhoven.

The American First and Third Armies were locked in bitter engagements with the enemy south along the Allied line. The Germans threw in crack, first-line troops from the Russian front against American units which breached the Siegfried Line east of encircled Aachen.

But the enemy's Russian front veterans were not good enough to halt the drive of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' American First Army troops. The Germans themselves said they had been driven back inside Duren, only 20 miles west of Cologne.

The Yanks fought well inside the frontier fortress city of Aachen after crushing German resistance on the outskirts. At Stollberg, six miles east of Aachen Hodges' men smashed back tanked German counterattacks and then scored small advances.

One U. S. First Army column drove to a point two miles from Sittard, a Dutch city a mile from the German frontier and 18 miles northwest of Aachen. A second Yank column probed the outer fortifications of the westwall at the Dutch town of Simpelveld, six miles northwest of Aachen and a little more than a mile from enemy soil.

Forty miles southeast of Aachen the Americans made two new crossings into Germany, advancing a mile or two from the Luxembourg border. These pushes were made at the German villages of Eichternach and Bollendorf, 8 to 12 miles northwest of the bigger drive into the Reich at Trier. In the vicinity of Prum the Americans beat back German counterattacks launched in the Schnee-Eliffel forest.

Fighting to clear the Germans' from their last footholds in France, American Third Army troops drove 18 miles east of Nancy and were nearing the peaks of the Vosges mountains which block the road to the French frontier city of Strasbourg.

East of Pont-A-Mousson, midway between Metz and Nancy, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's troops hurled back waves of counter-attacking Germans.

PLAN PAY INCREASES FOR POSTAL WORKERS

Washington, Sept. 19.—(P)—The senate post office committee announced today it would open hearings at once on a proposal to boost the pay of 350,000 postal workers. This would be a special interest in view of current attempts to relax wartime wage controls.

The first eyewitness will be heard by the committee tomorrow in support of a bill by Senator Mead (D-N.Y.) to give all full time post office employees a $400 permanent raise. This would be a special interest in view of current attempts to relax wartime wage controls. The temporary increase is to expire June 30, 1945.

MEN AND WOMEN IN THE SERVICE

Mrs. Fred Rydholm has received word from her husband Fredholm, with the U. S. Navy on an L. S. T. somewhere in the Pacific that he has been promoted to Storekeeper Third Class.

OVERSEAS PROMOTION

Cpl. William G. Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bower, of Youngsville has advised his parents that he has been promoted to sergeant. He is located somewhere in France.

S/Sgt. William Knapp, of Fort Belvoir, Vt., is home on furlough to visit his father, Henry Knapp, at Lander.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Williams, of 122 Walnut street, have received word from their son, Frank M. Williams, a man of class, that he has arrived safely somewhere in the Hawaiian Islands.

Word has been received that Pvt. Frank C. Gernonto has been transferred from Staunton, Va., to Berkeley, Texas.

Eindhoven: Airborne Army Objective

Photo above, taken during RAF raid, shows great Phillips war plant in Eindhoven, Dutch industrial town where glider troops of Lieut.-Gen. Lewis H. Brereton's airborne army were reported battling Germans. Allies fought way south for junction with the British and Canadian First Armies striking up from Belgium.

"SOCIALIZED FARMING" IS SCORED BY DAVIS

Erie, Sept. 19.—(P)—If President Roosevelt is re-elected, U. S. Senator James J. Davis says, Pennsylvania farmers "may as well get set for what the new deal calls 'community farming'." In a statement issued by Republican state committee headquarters at Harrisburg last night, the GOP senate nominee declared "socialized farming means that every producer will be subject to the iron-hand regimentation of a super-state."

Prisoners In Camps Similar In Appearance

was cut off and their rations reduced to bread and water.

"German prisoners have proved to be valuable in many kinds of work," General Hayes said. "They are now being used in Virginia for harvesting of the crops, mainly peaches and apples, for working in canneries, fertilizer plants, on any type of camp construction, such as building roads and side walks. A number are working around the ports salvaging lumber, pulpwood and logging."

Preparations To Demobilize War Agencies

(From Page One)

3. "The simplification and adaptation of the administrative structure to peace-time requirements." The civil service commission yesterday reported federal payrolls stood at 2,956,602 employees at the start of this month. 270,502 of them in Washington. But the Byrd committee on government spending estimated the number of federal employees on September 13 at 3,112,965.

About a million people worked for the government before the war.

PLUNGES UNDER TRAIN

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—(P)—A 30-year-old woman plunged beneath a speeding subway train at city hall station here today and had her right arm severed above the elbow. A witness said she heard a scream and saw the woman, Miss Margaret E. Morrow, 30, topple from the platform. Miss Morrow, an employee of the city planning commission, also suffered deep head wounds. She remained conscious. Her condition is serious.

CORRY NATIVE DIES

Chicago, Sept. 19.—(P)—Dr. Clifford W. Barnes, 79, one of the founders of the Chicago Sunday Evening Club, widely known non-sectarian religious institution, died last night from a heart ailment. He was a native of Corry, Pa. One daughter, Miss Lilace Reid Barnes, survives.

NORTHERNBERLAND LEADS

Harrisburg, Sept. 19.—(P)—Northernberland county with an average of 184 pounds per capita led all Pennsylvania counties in war salvage waste paper collections for August the state salvage committee reported as the monthly total of 60,471 tons hit a new high for the state.

TREASURY BALANCE

Washington, Sept. 19.—(P)—Treasury position Sept. 16: Receipts $456,868,441.92; expenditures $280,450,870.11; net balance $15,381,015,849.06; total debt $211,002,151,981.80; decrease under previous day $80,462,710.75.

ELIABETHAN SUGAR

Queen Elizabeth of England first introduced sugar into her domestic household as an article of diet in the middle of the 16th century. Prior to that time, the limited amount produced was mainly used for medicinal purposes.

Christmas Will Be No Fun For One G.I.

WRAP SECURELY!—Those Christmas packages going to members of the armed forces overseas must be wrapped securely to prevent their arrival in the condition of the one being shown above by Brig. Gen. William E. Chickering, chief, Army Postal Service, to Dr. Lindsey F. Kimball, USO Administrative Vice-President. USO's nearly 3,000 operations, all financed by the American people through the National War Fund, again will take part in the War Department's Christmas Mail Month, September 15 to October 15. Your Christmas gifts to men and women overseas must be mailed within that time. Mail Early! Wrap Securely! Address Correctly!

John A. Smith, secretary of the agriculture adjustment administration committee in Pennsylvania, said that for the years 1942, 1943 and 1944, production goals were established on the basis that every time

WAVES Pick New Officers From Ranks

The Bureau of Navy Personnel announces today that WAVE officer candidates will be selected from the ranks of enlisted personnel at the rate of 50 a month after October 26, 1944.

The present rate of WAVE officer procurement will continue until the currently set quotas are filled for the September 25 and October 26 classes at Northampton, Mass. After these classes are filled, only specialists such as doctors, dentists and occupational therapists, and other unobtainable from the enlisted ranks, will be procured from civilian life for WAVE officer ranks.

Because attrition rates are lower than anticipated in January, 1944, and limited service personnel from combat areas are being absorbed into continental shore establishments, WAVE procurement will be reduced in 1945. Both officer and enlisted programs of the Women's Reserve will be affected by the new policy.

WAVES in enlisted ratings will be ordered to the U. S. Naval Training Station, Bronx, New York, at the present rate up to and including the December 28 class.

Beginning in January, 1945, WAVE procurement in the enlisted rates will be limited to approximately 500 monthly throughout the nation. This figure may be revised upward at some late date, dependent upon the needs of the service. No definite plans have yet been made as to the location of the WAVES recruit school for the new quota.

H. S. Student Council Plans New Rulings

Following a preliminary meeting of the revision committee, appointed to revise the Warren High School Student Council constitution, the high school student body will vote soon on the changes.

The committee, composed of: James Farrell, chairman, Grace Young, Janet Cannon, Hugh Jamieson, Eleanor Peters, Robert Wilder, Jack Harrington, and Duane Wilder, has been at work during the summer, making the necessary revisions.

Important revisions are (1) The president is eligible to veto any bills; (2) Eligibility and dismissal rules have been liberalized; (3) Advisors are elected for one year; (4) Organization of material now in the constitution; (5) The names and duties of the six executive departments have been changed.

If the changes are passed, the student body will consist of two branches of government, the legislative to pass all laws, and the executive whose duty it will be to enforce all laws. The president will be in charge of the six executive committees which are: Treasury, secretarial, citizenship, awards, social, and special activities. Each department will have a chairman and the necessary members.

In the legislative department, each home room will be represented by one member elected from the home room. There will be six senior class representatives at large; five junior representatives; and four sophomores at large.

The changes have been made to satisfy the school as a group and are expected to be passed by the student body.

W-A-C Q-U-I-Z

Many applicants seeking information about the WAC are asking the recruiters similar questions about the corps. We have picked five of the most repeated questions and we have carefully prepared the answers to these questions.

Question No. 1. What happens when I sign my application to join the WAC?

A. You are sent to Erie induction station with a WAC from the Erie office for your physical examination. Upon successful completion of your physical examination, you are taken to the Erie WAC Recruiting office, where Lt. O'Connor, Commanding Officer of this district, interviews each applicant, and your assignment made. After the interview, the applicants are sworn in the Army of the United States.

Question No. 2. How much time do I have after I am sworn in the Army?

A. From 14 to 21 days. However, if the situation demands, an extension may be granted to allow the applicant to complete any unfinished personal or business matters.

Question No. 3. Where do women from Warren and vicinity go for their basic training?

A. To Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Question No. 4. Is basic training hard and how long does it last?

A. Yes, basic training is rough. During basic you are up early in the morning, stand reveille, clean and scrub your barracks, stand inspections, learn how to march, are taught how to salute, when to salute and who to salute. It is a busy 6 weeks and you can justly feel proud of yourself when you complete your basic training.

Question No. 5. What happens when I complete my basic training?

A. You are then sent to your station of choice for the position you choose at the time of your induction.

Fr. Flanagan Gives Advice On Neglected Youth Problem

(Reprinted from Boys Town News)

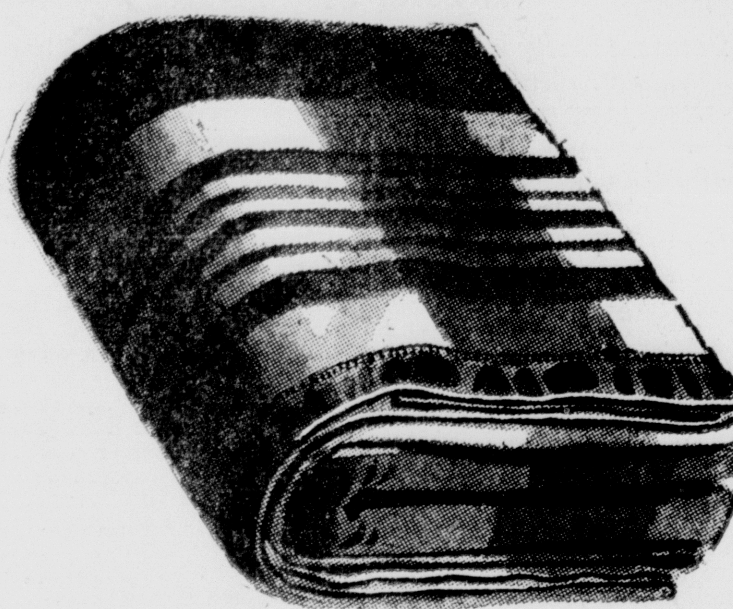

(From Page Six)
What does American want to do about this monster? We have been discussing ways and means of destroying it as long as the memory of man. No doubt many fine people have worked hard down through the years as individuals and through organizations to combat this monster, but it seems their efforts have not even sufficed to keep up with his destructive influence, and we are told that he is gaining ground, and we are forced to pay out each year, not only this enormous tax toll in money but also in the lives of our young men. We must use spiritual weapons of war. These weapons of war on sin and Monster Crime are not produced like guns and tanks, ships, planes and ammunition and other war material in our war factories. These spiritual weapons are produced only by the dedication of human souls, hearts and minds, to God our Creator and Lord and Master of the human race, and the whole universe. This dedication and consecration of human beings mean just this:—that man is but a helpless and blundering child needing the constant watchfulness, loving care, spiritual food, which we call Grace, and constant teaching of the principles necessary to build and construct and effectually make use of characters that will develop helpless, crying human beings into spiritual giants capable of smashing this Monster Crime, and keeping him from ever raising us as a powerful force against the children of men.

Let us quit calling names. Let us quit finding fault with everyone else except ourselves. Let us not blame the Church, or the home, or the courts, or even the nation until we analyze the conditions and circumstances. These are not alone to blame for this Monster Crime growing fat on human souls in our midst. You and I are to blame, and I mean all of dedication—Are we, as a nation, ready and anxious and determined to smash this spiritual combat this Monster Crime. If we are, then we start with ourselves, you and I, and our first step must be necessarily one that will call for great humility within us. We must admit before God, our Creator, our abject and helpless condition. This goes for the powerful and great, as recognized by the world, as it goes for the humble and the lowly. Such an admission of humility will be the proper connecting key that will place us in direct communication with Him Who is "the Way, the Truth and the Life". Prayer, humble and sincere, will be our constant and never-ceasing transportation lines which no enemy can destroy unless we want it to, sell out to the enemy and become quislings and these connecting arteries will bring to us hope, consolation and strength. Humble and sincere prayer will bring from the God of Wisdom the formula by which we can so easily readjust our lives through spiritual motives; formulas that will keep us personally attuned with the God of Might; formulas that will enable us to smash for all time, as long as we maintain our spiritual strength, all the frightening agencies of crime that make up this terrifying and ubiquitous octopus we call Monster Crime.

Let us quit finding fault with everyone else except ourselves. Let us not blame the Church, or the home, or the courts, or even the nation until we analyze the conditions and circumstances. These are not alone to blame for this Monster Crime growing fat on human souls in our midst. You and I are to blame, and I mean all of
